"Live your life for Christ. Don't be afraid to love and care about people. Giving God your best brings great rewards, and I speak from a life time of experience. Everyone of you is precious in His sight!"

-Lawson D. Saunders

DEDICATION

A dedication to one who is dedicated
A brief word to one whose words are a witness
And . . . a love to one who loves.

To Lawson Saunders who shares himself and Christ's love with each smile. Who loves people and life without an hesitation, and is an inspiration through words and through living.
To "Colonel" we dedicate a memorable moment of our lives.

"Colonel Saunder,"

A man extraordinarily filled with love, whose spirit is as harmless as a dove, certainly one sent from above, a friend so true, I'll always love.

You've always been there just to show others that you cared, from a warm smile, to a sparkling tear, sealed by a tight hug accompanied by a holy kiss, has illuminated a light in me to want to go out and do the same. I love you.

BODY

Various shades of change enhance the close of summer "vacation" and the beginning of another term - there is evidence of a newness that is derived from maturity, from experiences, from growth. Even the return to campus - classes, exams, cafeteria food, activities - is seen from a new outlook and a refreshed optimism for the outcome.

As we journey these untraveled paths there is a subconcious realization, not only of change and new directions, but that as individuals we construct a stable "whole". ENC is an adventure into the future and learning and maturity and life. The adventure leads us on to experiences with others. The experience of sharing - feelings, chapel, homework, concerts, laughter, meals, plays, tears, nature, beaches, knowledge, studying, ideas, life . . . one's self - is an experience itself.

The bond of togetherness is not only revealed as a physical state - it is a state of mind, of thinking, of feeling, of being, or seeing beyond our self interests - it is knowing and experiencing the mental, emotional and spiritual existence of others.

Through ENC we are connected, we are one, but even in this ONENESS we are unique. The care, the love and the sharing that we experience, although it is unified, it is individual. It is each seperate being's self exposure that make our bond unlike any other. It is not to follow in another's shadow, or set another higher than oneself, or pull another behind, but to stand as an individual and experience among and with others, in the heart of respect, and growth, and Christ . . . That is what makes ENC special.

As we journey through those sometimes dreaded cores on our way to becoming well-rounded individuals we wonder if it will ever end and simultaneously we wonder where the time goes. Not only is the competence, goals, abilities, the advance to adulthood are embodied by years, months, days, hours, seconds. But the outcome of this time is the accomplishment we yearn for and await. The bond to ENC, to our relationships will grow and change but will not break. For when Christ is the strength of the bond it is unquestionable and invincible.

Through World Lit., General Psych., EMES, Bib. Lit., and life we stumble, and roam, and have fun and have hard times. But through all we are comforted, strengthened and stimulated by interaction, by TOGETHERNESS.

For some this is a new experience, for others it is but a memory. But the TOGETHERNESS that envelopes, draws, moves and excites the body of ENC - and the body of Christ - is ever-present, glowing, and cherished.

PORTRAIT OF '82

In a year of deepening economic distress, the most inescapable image was that of the jobless. But any year produces its quantum of sorrow and hope. In 1982 there were the Israeli assault in Lebanon and the first permanent artificial-heart implant in Utah; the imperial pomp for a fallen Sovietic leader in Moscow and remembered glory of a fallen American princess in Monaco. There were, also, the passing of two Hollywood legends, the birth of a royal babe, and, not least, the arrivel of an eggdomed extraterrestrial whose message of gentle wisdom seemed, indeed, unearthly.

BOSTO

Boston is one of the great educational, cultural and scientific centers of the world. Boston's libraries, universities, conservatories, museums, historic shrines, and churches offer unsurpassed educational opportunities.

Only minutes away is Quincy a suburb of Boston were Eastern Nazarene College is located. Quincy has the distinction of being the birth place of two presidents of the United States, the home of John Hancock, and the location of the first railway in America.

The campus of Eastern Nazarene College consists of fifteen acres of beautiful park within two blocks of Wollaston beach, which edges an inlet of Boston Harbor. The Blue Hills are within a few miles so that the fauna and flora of both ocean and forest are available for study in their natural habitat. The campus grows a number of almost every family of flora found in New England.

Stephen W. Nease, D.D.

The 1982-1983 academic year at Eastern Nazarene College has been a time of drawing together in unity of purpose and in a spirit of Christian fellowship and common concern.

We have experienced genuine spiritual renewal, a renewed concern that we maintain an academic atmosphere on our campus that will glorify God, and the beginning of what we purpose to make a continual upgrading of our campus appearance and facilities. During this year we have mourned the loss of two much-loved faculty members — Dean Emeritus Bertha Munro and Dr. Wilbur H. Mullen. Their homegoing intensifies our desire to keep this college a place where there can be no conflict between the best in education and the best in our Christian faith.

As the 1983 Nautilus goes forth to faculty, students, alumni and friends, we ask your prayers that Eastern Nazarene College may continue true to her God-given mission.

BACK

Monday September the campus of ENC was packed, the parking lot was full and the Student Center was confusing by noon time.

Near the dormitories students and parents were busy carrying suit cases and boxes, and by day's end the campus was completely full.

The first days before classes started were days to relax to look up old friends and to make new friendships. It was also a time to watch T.V. and to figure out what books are needed for class.

Coming back is a new beginning.

A Cappella Choir Retreat

There's something special about the sound of a voice in song, but put 50 of those voices together, give them a patient director, lots of time to rehearse and a reason to sing, and you may be listening to the A Cappella Choir.

For the third consecutive year, the choir spent its two day retreat in late September at the Uxbridge Massachusetts Church of the Nazarene. Although the twelve hours of marathon rehearsal were at times tedious, it was well balanced by moments of food, fellowship, and fun. An already successful weekend was capped with a moving concert on Sunday morning. Though tired during eight o'clock class on Monday, no one regretted a weekend well spent.

Every first week of September at ENC is dregded by incoming Freshmen. From their arrival on campus, until the final Freshman-Sophomore Banquet on Friday night, revengeful sophomores initiate Freshmen into college life.

Each Freshmen is given a red and white beanie which must be worn at all times until the banquet. Freshmen girls can be seen performing mandatory calisthenics on the front lawn in their nightgowns at 3 A.M. Many male freshmen can recount tales of late night jogs down to Wolly beach to take a forced dip into the chilly water. Some Freshmen rebel, and attempt to sneak across campus masquerading as upper classmen. If they are caught, they are forced to sing the yearly version of the infamous freshman song.

By Friday night the fun is over, and the sophomores are willing to make peace. The beanies come off, and the freshmen begin to plan their revenge on next incoming flock of new students.

Registration

Mass Confusion - that's what comes to my mind when I think back to Registration day. I approached Angell Hall, eyes bulging, not believing the line of people waiting to get inside. I was shuffled along with all the others. After an hour in line I was able to enter the building - not quite sure if that was good or bad! The run-around began that is so typical of such a day; never being in the right place at the right time, or finally getting there and finding out that some small detail had been omitted and the run-around began all over again. After two hours of mild exasperation, I reached the last line and the realization that the experience had been rather exciting! The next registration day would be a breeze - or so I thought, but the whole process will be repeated second semester! Oh, well . . . everyone needs a little confusion now and then!

After similar shows succeeded on other college campuses, Sigma decided to produce a show of its own. The "ladies" were chosen by each floor of the girls dorms. During the course of the show they displayed their taste in formal attire and in sportswear fo shows. The broad range of talent of the contestant made apparent — from singing to ballet, even c leading routines . . . And finally the judges decisions made:

Pirates of Penzance

The Pirates of Penzance are a band of free-spirited noblemen who left the evils of aristocracy for the excitement of life on the high seas. Frederic, who was mistakenly apprenticed to the pirates, leaves them on his 21st birthday only to find he was born in Leap year and must leave his beloved Mabel until the 1940's.

Mabel then calls out the police to destroy the "rollicing band of pirates." Just when it looks as though the pirates have defeated the cops in the battle that ensued, a surprise "visit" from Queen Victoria saves the day for the frightened police.

The pirates, bound by their love of their queen, are about to be imprisoned when the maid saves them by declaring, "They are all noblemen who have gone wrong." On hearing this, the Major General offers his ten lovely daughters as brides for the motley crew of pirates. It is here that Frederic and Mabel are reunited and they all live happily ever after.

In New England stands a college
Near blue Quincy Bay,
E.N.C. our Alma Mater
Glorious for aye.
Laud her merits, sing her praises,
Let our song ring free.
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater
Hail, O E.N.C.

Graceful branches lifted
heavenward,
Suncrowned 'fore our view,
Stand the elms upon our campus,
Reaching to the blue.
Shady walks beneath the foliage,
Flow'ring beauty rare;
Blessed by nature, how we love
thee,
Alma Mater fair.

Clear her vision, high her purpose,
Lo, she stands serene;
And her faith is sure, undaunted,
Eastern Nazarene.
We will be prove our strong
devotion,
Loyal we will be;
True to God and Alma Mater,
True to E.N.C.

Fall Revival

On November 9-14, a series of revival services were held with Dr. William McCumber as the special speaker for the week. The services were well attended each night by college and community people.

The theme that Dr. McCumber presented was based on the "I Am" themes from the gospel of John. He ended the series talking from the book of Exodus. He stated that Jesus Christ was the only answer. "We cannot save ourselves," all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." Your background can't have you . . . education makes no difference . . . your membership in a church will not save you . . . all that stand between you and destruction is the blood of Jesus Christ!"

Throughout the week, there was a continuity of theme. Each service flowed into the next. Dr. McCumber was always biblically based and made it become more personable as he used real life situations to illustrate the themes.

The purpose of Revivals is an opportunity for outreach and the inner growth of the community of believers. Several of the students commented on Revival's effect on these areas of their lives. It was a meaningful time for many members of the student body. Some mentioned that it was a time of learning or conviction rather than a temporary spiritual high.

World Hunger Chapel

World Hunger Week arrived in October, there was special emphasis on our need to share our wealth with those less fortunate. Fasting, World Vision movies, Love Loafs, Donations, flyers, and prayer times were all different ways in which new awareness was reached by many. Sensitivity to the needs of our brothers and sisters in countries of great need had been sparked as amazing stats were quoted concerning the uneven disbursement of the earths' wealth. Close to $800 was raised through the various means and many responded positively to the experience. Overall the week was a time to respond to God's call to "Love our Neighbors."

The 1982 Christmas Variety Show was an event that I will not soon forget.

The success of the Variety Show was due to the complimentation of the talented case and the enthusiastic audience. Without one, the other could not have thrived.

The technical crew was a tremendous asset to the production.

Thank you all for making the 1982 Christmas Variety Show a memorable event of the year.

Quiz Team

The ENC Bible Quiz Team has one central purpose: to promote Bible Quizzing in any and every way. The underlying reason for the excitement is the belief that the Bible is God's announcements to His children. Studying the same books the teen quizzers are studying, along with officiating at Maine and New England quizzers, keeps our quizzing juices flowing. In the summer of '82, the team traveled to Mount Vernon Nazarene College and finished 13th in World Bible Quiz Competition.

Dr. Kenneth Shipps, Dean of Barrington College was with us, generally wrapping up the subject in its overall orientation, and President Nease completed the series with the emphasis of "A College President and His Faith".

Physics Phenomena

Did you ever see water run uphill? The Physics/Engineering Club of ENC put on a demonstration that did just that and much more. On display were the principles of helicopter flight, computer graphics, solar cells, and several electronic demonstrations. All of the displays were constructed by the club members to demonstrate the principles of some aspect of physics and engineering.

Some of the show stoppers were the helicopter demonstration built by Jon Goodwin, the Jacob's Ladder (Frankenstein movie buffs recognized this demonstration immediately) built by Arthur Mihill, and the water running uphill demonstration constructed by club president Michael Dubisz. The club plans to "invent" some new displays in the years to come, so if you missed the event, don't miss it next year.

The 1983 Mission Blitz sponsored by the World Student Outreach Society was held February 14-16. "Responsibility: Our Response to God's Ability" was this years theme.

Prof. Eunice Bryant kicked off the event with her Valentine chapel, speaking of the true action and meaning of Love. That night Rev. Jerry Porter, the featured speaker, shared with several students at a Devotional Dinner. His activities continued in chapel times, class visits, and Wednesday night services. Both Jerry and Toni Porter shared in Bible studies on campus. The Mission Blitz Banquet was held on February 15 and was a meaningful time of learning about God's work in Costa Rica and in the Porter's lives. Over $500 was raised in pledges for the continuance of the mission in Costa Rica.

The purpose of a Mission Blitz is to remind all of us the need to respond to God's call wherever it might lead. The challenge of the Porter's committed lives and the Costa Ricans they shared about were challenging and inspiring to all who took part.

Semiformal Honors Dean Robert Helfrich

This year's annual Mid-winter Semiformal was a special evening of appreciation in honor of Robert W. Helfrich, G'60, who recently completed 14 years of service as Dean of Students at Eastern Nazarene College. The dinner was sponsored by the Student Council under the direction of social chairperson, Karl Guldener, and was attended by faculty, staff and administration as well as by the students.

Tributes to Rev. Helfrich were brought by three of his former colleagues in the Office of Students Relations-Joe Rapalje, Marion Janes, and Janie Graves. In addition, a number of letters were read from those who gave witness to the impact made upon their lives by Bob and his ministry to them.

The guest artist for the evening was Mr. David Meece of Nashville, Tennessee, who trough music, comedy, and testimony provided entertaining and effective communication and witness.

Imperials

With Special Guest

Kathy Troccoli

Imperials gave an electrifying, inspirational and incredibly versatile concert. They shared their message not only through song but also by relating personal experiences. Everyone was challenged to examine his own relationship with Christ.

Found Free

Found Free chose to break away from the mold that all popular christian groups seem to fit into and decided to dare and be different. They didn't seem to know any Imperial music. Nor did they perform any music by the Archers, B.J. Thomas, Praise, Don Francisco, or even Evie!

The group exploded with energy on stage. Vocals were delivered with great intensity as were the instrumentals. A duet by the bass and drums was one of the evenings highlights.

The first few numbers were a shock to the audience and a few people got up and left. However, Found Free won the audience over quickly. Their humor and testimonies assured us that God had not gone "punk" but that He rejoices in any music that gives Him the praise and glory.

Chapel Coordinator

Chapel services are set up three days a week: Tuesday and Thursday from 9:50 a.m. to 10:20 a.m. and Wednesday from 10:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. Each student fills out a card with their name and mail box number and hands it in at the end of the chapel. Attendance is then recorded by an employer of Student Personnel.

Students are allowed seven cuts a semester. After this seven cuts there is a charge of $5.00 a cut.

The chapel services this year furnished us with more than entertainment.

Inspiring messages caused us to draw nearer to Christ giving us important spiritual instructions. This year is to be remembered for its valuable enlightening chapel services.

Spring Revival

Revival week, a biannual event at ENC, brought Dr. John A. Knight to our campus. The Spring services were held March 15-20, with services twice daily — excluding Saturday.

Dr. Knight is currently the President of Bethany Nazarene College in Bethany, Oklahoma and has served as President of Mount Vernon Nazarene College and as Editor of the Herald of Holiness.

The messages presented to the attentive congregations were varied, covered many aspects of our daily lives, and probed personal, self-concerning questions of the listeners.

Dr. Knight covered a broad selection of scriptures, including Jeremiah, the Gospels, and Romans, yet his messages were unified and organized, and captivated audience attention. Topics such as Christ's prayer for His followers, Unity with God, and determination of values in a Christian's life, unconditional surrender to Christ's will and the mood and miracle of prayer were discussed.

Throughout the week, many sought and found answers and life in Christ, through the words of a servant — which were the words of the Holy Spirit.

Good News Musicals

Under the direction of Ronda Rice Winderl, "Good News" tells the life-changing story of Christ through the varied perspectives of five critically acclaimed musicals. The "layering" effect produces an overall integrated view of how recent theatrical generations have interpreted the man Jesus and his life-changing mission in the lives of men.

Four of the stories are based on the Book of Matthew.

Godspell, made famous by John Michael-Tebelak and composer Stephen Schwartz was one of the most popular musicals of the 1970's and surely one of the longest running Gospel productions of the past decade.

Jesus Christ Superstar, although the most radical interpretation of the Gospel story, as a rock opera depicts Jesus as a man caught up in the political and social upheavel of his time.

Starring roles in Good News Musicals: Michael Kreitman as Matthew in Cotton Patch Gospel; Bill Stadler as Jesus in Godspell and Jesus Christ Superstar, James P. Bryne as the interpretive narrator providing historical and background information tying the various segments together.

Producer/Director Winderl, Chairperson of the Comminications Arts Department, reemphasizes the dedication of the Center to serve the surrounding community as well as the College. "It is our hope," says Winderl "that through quality arts presentations, we will become an even more accessible cultural resource for our community, providing a service to and tie with our neighborhood."

Junior-Senior Day

This year's Jr./Sr. Banquet packed the Nicholas in Norwood on Friday, May 6. Banquet attire ranged everywhere from knee-length dresses and suits to ball gowns and tuxedos. After banquet pictures were taken in the gardens behind the restaurant, everyone filed into the tables. A choice of London broil or Chicken Kiev, was served. Ice cream pie and coffee polished the meal off.

Hicks and Cohagen a comedy team from Idaho entertained with skits. The high point of the evening came when they asked President Nease, Mr. Bolinger, Dr. Barnard, and Dr. Seaborn to help them perform their first skit. The four administrators ended by writhing and wriggling on stage while trying to perform the team's antics.

The evening ended with a slide presentation by Scott Ramsey. Next year's Junior Class will have hard time topping this banquet.

enior's Retreat

As twenty-five seniors drew closer to Alton Bay, New Hampshire, the fog grew as ick as our confusion. Our main excuses for going on to senior retreat were to get way from ENC and to have some fun. Both motives were easily accomplished only reveal alterior motives. We arrived Friday night and were greeted by eight inches f bright clean snow. Later in the evening we all threw off our inibitions with some e-breakers. We spent the rest of the evening in a furious game of round robin ing-pong. Neither the men or the women could stablish themselves as the superior ex.

Joe Seaborn, the senior class advisor, and pastor Roger Haskins, from Bethel Beach hurch, arrived early Saturday morning. After breakfast Roger talked about life after ollege and the alterior motives for the weekend began to keep out. We spent the est of the morning sledding, ice skating, an snowball throwing. Mike Douglas, ngela Nicastro and Greg Ott won the prize for the best snow sculpture, with their iant booth. After supper Bill Dyment led in a special sharetime. We spent the vening sharing our fears for the future and what we have learned over the past our years. As predicted Sunday morning came too soon. In the morning Roger askins led us in a special communion service. We finished our last real meal for while and headed back home to reality, the ENC campus.

"Is the mail out?" "I left my key in my room; will you get my mail for me?" "Air Mail again!" "Do you have any junk mail? Anything will do just so I can take something out of my box. It's been so long since I've gotten a letter." These are remarks the mailman has to deal with everyday — usually while he is trying to sort the mail to get it in the student's boxes in record time. The joy of this job is seeing eyes light up and hear loud shouts when that "special letter" comes; that letter that makes their day.

Spring Spectacular

The 1983 Spring Spectacular was sponsored by the AWS society in the month of April. By the combined efforts of the Council and the participation of several students this show was a success. This year's spring & summer fashions were modeled by ENC students. A special appearence was made by a model Michael Hareloom from Boston. Area stores donated these new fashions which were modeled. The participating stores were, Cleanners the Gap, The United, Proning Gronnd, Hit a Miss, Anderson Little, Casual Male, and Jordan Marsh. Their eagerness to donate outfits was much appreciated.

The model's performed very well after a few practices. All those involved were able to work well together. The models who took part in the show were Christine Strenge, Rebecca Terry, Jackie Litle, Heather Rogers, Allex Zevan, Jim Harelson, Terry Osley, and Michael Harelson. We would like to extend a special thanks to Dianne Holt who directed and commentated the show.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders boosted school spirit at every opportunity and backed the teams through both victories and losses. They encouraged good sportmanship at soccer and basketball games. One of their tasks was supporting the team at all times.

Men's Varsity Soccer

The 1982 soccer team ended the season with a 6-11 ecord. While playing many tough, top-ranked teams, they had a 2 goals against average, indicating their overall consistent defensive plays.

The team will greatly miss the leadership and consistent lay of graduating seniors Jim Weslow, Graig Shreckengast and Greg Allen.

After an outstanding season, Jim Weslow was selected to the first team of the NCCAA and the Seaboard. Sophomore Jim Corbin also was named to the second team of the Seaboard. With a very young, hardworking group of players returning, the future of the team looks bright.

SCORE!

Women's Varsity Volleyball

Team Name- Lady Crusaders
Captains- Denise Ahart and Karen Hardy
Uniform- Red/White
Scorer- Kathy Cogliano

The Lady Crusaders Team finished the year with 22 wins and 16 losses. They won the NAIA District 5 and traveled to Rochester, N.Y. to lose in the regionals to Nazareth College who went on to place Fifth in the NAIA National. The team was selected for MAIAW play and bowed in the opener to Smith College and then went on to beat Holy Cross. The same cloud overshadowed the number one seed for King's Tournament. However, Ada and Alecia were elected to the all-star team at King's. The loss of Seniors Dodie Baldwin, Denise Ahart and Karen Hardy will be a big void to fill since all three are starters, hitters and have four years experience. Their contribution to the team has been extremely important both on and off the court.

This year's 1982-83 "100,000 lb. Push" was a first time experience. We heard much encouragement from the crowd, as they watched all the men competing with one another- their faces red with determination giving it all they've got. The excitement and intensity sent chills down my back, giving me that extra push I needed to finish every station with the confidence knowing I did my best. The highlight of the night was the girls who cheered us on, firing us up to strive for that ultimate goal of strength. I love the sport of weightlifting . . . it's one of excitement, challenge and pain.

Varsity Cross Country

The ENC X-country team put together its most impressive season to date with a record of 44-18. Individually John Furey became the first person to break the 1,000 career wins (1,100 as a junior). Also 4 men: Bob McKinney, Jim Watson, Mike Douglas and Lenny Rideout had outstanding years; all fighting for 2nd man. Four runners were elected All-District NCCAA and Seaboard Conference. Furey also made All-District NAIA. The team placed 4th at the NAIA District Championship (1 point behind 3rd). The NCCAA District 1 and Seaboard Conference Championship was won by our ENC Crusaders. At the Nationals in Cedarville, Ohio the squad placed 8th in a tough field of 19 teams. John Furey was the most valuable runner and Lenny rideout the most-improved. The best Freshman was Jim Watson and Team Captain was Mike Douglas.

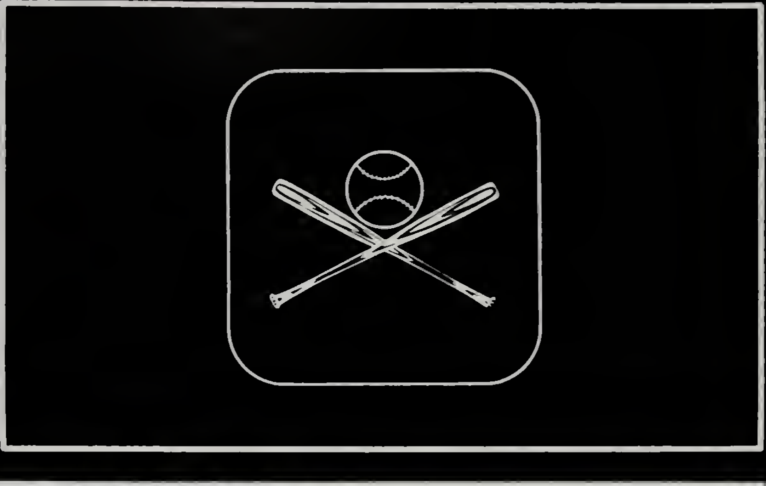
Women's Varsity Softball



The Women's Softball Team suffered a disappointing 3-10 season. After a slow start, they played well at mid-season but they did not develop any consistent team play. Elva Reed and Dawn Egelstrom showed some fine pitching. Jolene Jones batted extremely well with a couple of 750 outtings. June Peterson hit the team's solo homerun. Co-Captain Audrey Horner organized team defense this season and will sorely missed next year.

Men's Varsity Baseball

This years squad welcomed the addition of 10 first years players and the return of 2 sophmores, 1 junior, and 2 seniors. Freshman Todd Schwanke and Dave Tharp strengthened our pitching staff while Matt Pease and Mike Venna added strength defensively up the middle. The outfield consisted of three speedsters Jim Kilbride, Jim Weslow and Jim Corbin and when on base they made things happen. Returning at the corners and also pitching, Jeff Jackson and Gary Weslow completed the defense and added experience.

This year's team played hard aggressive baseball running whenever possible. At the Seaboard Tournament in N.Y. finished 2-2 taking 3rd place in the NCCAA. With the return of 8 starters next year, once again the team should be young, quick, and competitive.

Men's Varsity Tennis

The men's team will remember the 1983 season as one of many up's and down's. Although we began the season y beating Hellenic College and winning by default to New England University, we faired less as well the remainder. With only two returning players on this years squad the team played exceptionally well in the face of difficult competition-many times playing 2 or 3 positions above their ability.

We look to next year with high hope, although we will miss seniors Mike Shuck and Tim Botterbusch, plus Rupen Dolasia who will be transferring to B.U.'s Engineering program.

Women's Varsity Basketball

After an opening loss to Stonehill the women rallied to efeat a strong Clark University team and then remained in the top ten rankings among division 3 colleges in New England for the remainder of the season. The 1982-1983 team had its growing pains trying to learn coach Shoffs philosophy of team basketball and adapting to the loss of three key players during the season. Overall the team grew closer together and finished with a winning record and will have everyone back next year. The coach and players are looking forward to a strong 1983-1984 season and a New England tournament berth.

King '83 The Power To Be

Once again the Spirit at Kings prevailed . . . luckily because ENC was not "The Champion", "King at Kings", "Second to None" or "The Power to Be". In fact we continued the almost constant decline in scored points over the past five years. Yet ENC fans pushed for their teams even when the outcome looked quite dismal. We came close in several events, but never took a winning position. Although most agree that we were number one in several.

But ENC's Spirit and spectacular show of fans made the weekend less tense. We watched our teams place second, third and fourth. We sympathized with our players, yet cheered for them to the end. We watched Clay Halliday score his 2000th career point in the final minutes of ENC's final game. And we watched ENC place fourth overall with a total of 93 points. Although the statistics do not show a victorious year, the victory was present in the togetherness and participation of both participants and fans.

THE "INTERNATIONAL" CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

483 Purchase St. New Bedford, Ma

Rev. Manuel Chavier-Pastor
Rev. Stanley Bayne-Associate Pastor

Rev. Manuel Chavier Jr.-Minister of Education & Music
Rev. Bruce Burgo-Minister of Outreach & Visitation
Rev. Antonio DePina-Liaison, Farois do Senhor

The word "International" gives the emphasis of the church's ministry and adaption it has made to it's community

The church has various activities to serve and attract all generations. Just a few examples are; Firm Believers Exercise Program, Youth Discipling, Caravan, Sports Program, Prison Ministry . . . The church agressively disciples its membership through many bible studies and discipleship groups. Every Saturday the members go witnessing door to door reaching out to the community. Tony DePina says the following about his church:

"One of the reasons for the success of the International Church of the Nazarene in New Bedford is that the church places upon each member a responsibility of sharing Christ with his neighbor. The Church emphasizes personal evangelism, discipleship, and Bible studies almost every day of the week in different homes" To better serve it's community the church is in the process of gathering funds to build a new church building. They lean on the promise from God's word to "pray and not to lose heart". A verse that certainly reflects this church and was pointed out in one of their recent bulletins is James 2:17 "Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead being by itself." Let us take this to heart and learn how to personally let our faith increase as we work for the Lord!

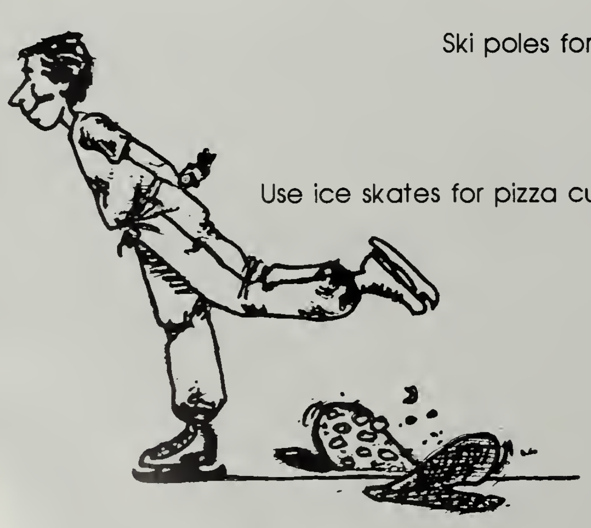
What do you do with your winter things in the summer



Ski poles for hot dog roast.

Use ice skates for pizza cutters

If you take the wool from the electric blanket, you can hang it up on the front porch and use the wiring to electrocute bugs.

Snow skis to catapult water balloons.

Christmas lights can be put on your bike as reflectors.

What kind of shoes do you make out of banana peels?
Slippers.

Why does the fireman wear suspenders?
To hold his pants up.

What kind of key swings from trees?
Mon-key.

Why does a bear climb over a mountain?
Going through ruins his nail polish.

Why does a crow cross a road?
To get to the udder side.

Why did it cost $50.000.000 to send a camera to Mars?
They sent it by taxi.

We Left You Space To Write

This year has been a fantastic experience. The hard work, many late hours, frustrations and upsets were far outweigh, by the challanges, new friendships, and by the privilege to serve you. The presence of God in my life helped me to understand, to love and to appreciate those who worked with me to bring this yearbook to completion.

The 1983 Nautilus has been lovingly, thoughtfully and prayerfully produced for you, and it reflects the hard work and concern of many people.

My deepest gratitude must go to all members of the staff who worked so deligently; you not only worked but you did much to add to my own life and my understanding of others.

"Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. II Tim 2:15

Thank you for the privilege to serve you

Antonio M. DePina
